

Member of Advent International
Global Private Equity

Portada | Aerodom | Guía de Aeropuerto | Contactos

English Version

Aerodom
About Us
Distinguishing Marks
Airports
Airlines
Environment
Security
Marketing
Suggestions
Información Util
Dominican Rep.
Destinations
Statistics
Hotel Dom.
Negocios
Commercial Rates
Advertising
Contactar
Aerodom Offices
Government Offices
Herramientas Administrativas
Webmail

Aerodom News

■ Aerodom aircraft made emergency drill in the AILA

Airports Dominicanos Siglo XXI (Aerodom) conducted an emergency drill Aeronautics International Airport Las Americas-JFPG (AILA), in order to measure capacity and response times both internal staff and external institutions in the event of the occurrence of a real emergency.

The drill was held on Wednesday May 19 from 9:00 to 11:30 am, in strict compliance with the rules of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) and the Dominican Civil Aviation Institute (IDAC).

At the welcome ceremony of the exercise was attended by Director General of Aerodom, Andrew O'Brien, the Director of the AILA, Raul Berroeta, the Director of Aviation Safety Specialist Corps (CESA), Brigadier General Pilot FAD (DEM), Pedro R. Valenzuela Quiroz, and the President-Executive Director, and Manager for the Dominican Republic of CSI International, Anthony Piegaro.

Dominican Pawa The airline provided the DC 9 aircraft used during the exercise, while Copa Airlines as an airline participated guest with the name of Air Kaleta.

The Director of Public Relations and Communications Aerodom, Yolanda Manan, said the company has the necessary equipment to give quick answers to any of the six airports it operates.

Tomorrow, said the drill was announced in advance in order to avoid alarm in the population, and which were used air and ground ambulances Aero-Ambulance, a company operated by Helidosa.

For the realization of course, was activated on Main Command Post (WFP), the room unharmed, relatives and Media, which are enabled in the event of an actual event.

In the exercise also involved Aerodom, the Dominican Civil Aviation Institute (IDAC), the Special Body on Airport Security (CESA), the Emergency Operations Center (COE) Santo Domingo, the Dominican Red Cross, Civil Defense Corps Fire, Dominican Air Force, National Police, Tourist Police (POLITUR) and the Metropolitan Transport Authority (AMET).

In addition, the Airport Department, the Ministry of Public Health and Social Welfare, the Dominican Social Security Institute (IDSS), Aero Ambulance, the various airlines operating in the AILA, Airport Services Division (DSA) and Menzies Aviation Group, among other institutions.

May 20, 2010

